Sail Sand Point Spring Open
Sail Sand Point
March 13, 2010

FINAL RESULTS

REGATTA HIGHLIGHTS: 150 sailors spent Saturday on the waters of Lake Washington in Seattle. At 10:45, and the start of race 1A, the wind was out of the south at 6 knots with some bigger puffs. As the day progressed, the wind shifted to the southwest and built to a very puffy 10 knots with larger gusts. All courses were windward/leeward with 3 or 4 legs. No protests were filed and we were able to complete 6 races in each division before 4:00.

High school sailors had the opportunity to speak and sail with NW college teams. A big thank you to Portland State University, University of Oregon, University of Washington, and Western Washington University for sailing the event and answering questions about your sailing programs for the future team members.

Thanks to Sail Sand Point for hosting the event and putting on a great BBQ. Also, thank you to the volunteers who kept the racing moving: Nick Hubbard, Michelle Stitzer, Brendan Fahey, Ellie Wilson, and Alex Jones.

And all those sailors could not have gotten on the water if it weren't for North Kitsap, Bainbridge, Orcas Island, Bellingham, and Portland State supplying some extra boats.
